

programme at a glance

THURSDAY SEPTEMBER 29

Sargood Centre (Teaching Space Z114)
8:00 – 9:00	Registration
9:00 – 10:00	Formal Welcome (including mihiwhakatau and morning tea)
10:00 – 10:40	Setting the Context of Experiential Learning: Panel of four speakers each addressing their understanding of experiential learning. Panel members: Otago Boy's High School - Sam Kilsby; OP Student - Deidre Roberts; OP Lecturer - Chris Hendry; CapableNZ perspective - James Harrison
10:45 – 11:10	Keynote: Geoff Scott on experiential learning
11:15 – 11:45	Barry Law: Types of experiential learning and how they impact learners
11:50 – 12:30	Josie Crawley and Chris Hendry - Reflection: What is reflective practice
12:30 – 1:15	Lunch (Sustainable lunch)
1:20 – 1:55	Building Teacher Capability through experiential learning. The new APP developed in Auckland. Provides teachers with an overview of the learning setting and their activity.
2:00 – 3:00	Jason Dewling - Innovative Models of Experiential Learning through a problem based experience Innovation, entrepreneurship, creative thinking, problem solving, critical thinking, working in a TEAM.
3:00 – 3:30	Afternoon tea
3:30 – 4:00	Barry Law, Lydia Harrell, Say Lim - Mapping experiential learning in relation to learner capability
4:05 – 5:15	Geoff Scott, Robin Day, James Harrison - Assessing experiential learning
5:45 – 6:45	Cocktail Function at The Hub

FRIDAY SEPTEMBER 30

	Sargood Centre (Teaching Space Z114)	Sargood Centre (Teaching Space Z115)
9:00 – 9:30	Welcome and Keynote Address - Minister for Tertiary Education, Skills and Employment, Steven Joyce Topic: Where the world is going with robotics, artificial intelligence and virtual reality, and what he thinks this means for the NZ workforce in the future. He may also have some messages/challenges for tertiary education providers.
9:35 – 10:05	Keynote Speaker - Geoff Scott Topic: The jobs that have not been invented yet
10:05 – 10:30	Morning tea
10:30 – 11:00	Presentation 1 - Valerie Sundby-Thorp, Ed.D (Dean of Social Science and Business, South Puget Sound Community College, USA) Topic: Guided pathways
11:05 – 11:35	Presentation 2 - Prof. Omihito Matsushita (Kanazawa Technical College) Topic: Preparing Future-Ready Internationally Competent Design Thinkers
11:40 – 12:10	Presentation 3 – Ye Yinzong (Vice President, Shanghai Institute of Technology) Topic: Cultivate Professional Excellence by University Transformation----Exploration and Practice of SIT
12:10 – 12:55	Lunch
1:00 – 1:30	Jason Dewling (Olds College, Canada) Topic: Entrepreneurship Have you ever wondered what separates good organizations from great ones? It's often tied to some cultural attributes around innovation and entrepreneurship. Olds College is considered Canada's most entrepreneurial Higher Educational institution! Jason will share some of the stories that make Olds College special and leave you with a framework that you can use in your institution
1:35 – 2:05	Presentation 1 - Glenys Ker/Samuel Mann (Otago Polytechnic) Topic: It's learning Jim, but not as you know it: targeting individual learning 'through work, for work, at work'
2:10 – 2:40	Presentation 2 - Barry Law (Otago Polytechnic) and Gagan Sachdeva (Future Skills) Topic: Learner Capability Project	Presentation 2a – Karen Vaughan (New Zealand Council for Educational Research) Topic: Educating with “vocational thresholds” to build future workforce capabilities
2:45 – 3:15	Presentation 3 – Nicholas Huntington (Ako Aotearoa) Topic: The Workplace as a Learning Environment	Presentation 3a - Nigel Studdart (Northtech) Topic: Future proofing and aspects of curriculum design in a digitally disrupted occupation environment
3:15 – 3:45	Afternoon tea
3:45 – 4:15	Panel Discussion: The focus will be the panels' personal summary of what they have heard and they will answer the question: “How do we educate people for the jobs that haven't been invented yet” Panels: Jason Dewling, Geoff Scott and Karen Vaughan
4:15 onwards	Hospitality and networking

Educating Tomorrow's Workforce Symposium

Join us to discover learning and teaching practices from around the world!

