Help others learn!

Have you spent years learning your trade? Are you now ready to pass on your knowledge to others? This Certificate will help you to gain the skills to share your knowledge and experience.

If it's a love of teaching, a passion for your trade or a need to help others achieve success, this qualification will give you the tools to help you achieve your goal.

Who is this for?

If you aspire to a career in adult and tertiary teaching or training, this is a fantastic programme to set you on your teaching career path.

Career opportunities

With this qualification under your belt, you could go on to secure a role as a vocational or workplace educator and trainer or as an academic staff member/tutor.

What will I learn?

Graduates of this qualification will be able to:

- > design for learning to meet specified learning outcomes in a variety of contexts
- > create and sustain a learner-centred teaching environment that respects learners' mana and diverse backgrounds, and the wider educational and societal context
- > select and apply facilitation and teaching strategies appropriate to diverse learners
- > enhance learning through the application of assessment and moderation practices
- > critically evaluate and reflect on own professional practice and explore options to improve it.

Entry requirements

Academic requirements

> Open entry.

Other requirements

- > You will need to have access to a group of at least 6 learners in order to complete course activities and required assessments.
- > These graded assessments contribute towards your overall grade so if you do not have access to a group of students, you will be unable to successfully complete the course.
- > You can learn more about the assessment requirements on each of the individual course pages (accessible via in the course descriptions section).
- > You must also be working with learners in a post-secondary environment and must meet the requirements of the Vulnerable Children Act 2014.

Experience

Even if you don't have the necessary qualifications you may still be approved for entry if you can show you have literacy and numeracy skills needed for tertiary study through other study, work and/or life experience. Please contact TANZ for more information.

Language

- > If English is not your first language, you may be required to show that your English Language skills meet IELTS 6.5 Academic (no lower than 6.5 in any subject) or English Proficiency Outcomes Chart equivalent.
- > If you have no evidence of your English Language skills and are a New Zealand citizen or permanent resident, contact us for an assessment.
- > Students with an NCEA Level 3 University Entrance are not required to provide evidence of English Language skills.

Your workload

This programme is made up of four courses with a total of 600 learning hours. This breaks down to approximately 15 hours per week of part-time study.

Depending on your previous academic online experience this may vary a little.

Further study options

This programme is the perfect pathway into further study towards Level 6 and above qualifications in adult and tertiary teaching.

Student loans and allowances

Courses and qualifications through TANZ eCampus are eligible for student loan support on condition that the student and level of study meet certain criteria. Student loans are administered through Studylink.
